

ICI Global Comment Letter on FCA Sustainability Disclosure Requirements (SDR) and Investment Labels

The Investment Company Institute (ICI) and ICI Global provided feedback on the Financial Conduct Authority (FCA) consultation on Sustainability Disclosure Requirements (SDR) and investment labels (“Consultation Paper”). ICI’s mission is to strengthen the foundation of the asset management industry for the ultimate benefit of the long-term individual investor. ICI Global members invest on behalf of millions of retail investors around the world choosing funds to save for retirement, education, and other important financial goals, and have a significant interest in regulatory requirements for funds that incorporate environmental, social, and governance (ESG) considerations into the investment process.

Read more in the comment letter.
