Investment Company Institute Elects New Chairman and Board Members

Washington, DC, October 4, 2002 - Paul G. Haaga, Jr., Executive Vice President and Director of Capital Research and Management Company, of Los Angeles, was elected today to a one-year term as Chairman of the Investment Company Institute, the national trade association of the American investment company industry.

Institute President Matthew P. Fink and Institute Chairman Paul G. Haaga, Jr.

As Chairman, Mr. Haaga presides over the Board of Governors, the governing body of the Institute, whose members include mutual funds, closed-end funds, exchange-traded funds, and unit investment trusts. The Board is responsible for setting policy and overseeing activities of the Institute. Mr. Haaga is also a member of the Institute's Executive Committee.

Mr. Haaga brings nearly 30 years of investment company experience to the position of Institute Chairman. Prior to joining Capital, investment adviser to the American Funds, in 1985, Mr. Haaga was a partner in the law firm of Dechert Price & Rhoads in Washington, DC. Mr. Haaga worked as a senior attorney for the Division of Investment Management of the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission from 1974 to 1977.

Mr. Haaga earned a bachelor's degree from Princeton University, an MBA from the Wharton School, and a law degree from University of Pennsylvania Law School.

In addition to Mr. Haaga's election, members of the Board of Governors appointed 17 new members to the Board—15 new Governors and two vacant positions were filled.
